Cr.Misc. No.28443 of 2008
RAJESH KUMAR SINGH
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR & ANR

2/ 29/9/2008.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner is the husband apprehending arrest in a complaint case under Section-498A of I.P.C. and 4 of the D.P. Act.

The submission from paragraph-9 of the application is of willingness to revive matrimonial harmony, as is apparent from the order-sheet. Despite this stand in the court below also no attempt was even made towards reconciliation.

Let the petitioner Rajesh Kumar Singh surrender before the court below within six weeks when he shall be enlarged on anticipatory bail for a period of two months upon furnishing the bail-bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) along with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of S.D.J.M., Katihar in Complaint Case No.2374/06.

On the date that he surrenders and files his bail-bonds, notice shall be issued by the court below to the complainant. If subsequent developments lead to the filing of a regular bail application by the petitioner within this period of two months and the petitioner at the time of moving such application presents himself physically to the court by surrendering to its jurisdiction, the court below shall not be inhibited from considering any such application for regular bail on its own merits, merely for reason of grant of limited anticipatory bail by this Court.
